7 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
8 NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

9
10 SHELA CAMENISCH, et al.,
11 Plaintiffs,
12 v.
13 UMPQUA BANK,
14 Defendant.

Case No. 20-cv-05905-RS

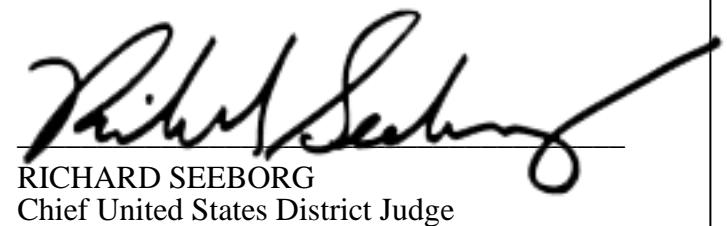

ORDER RE SCHEDULING

15
16 Plaintiffs filed a motion seeking an order setting briefing schedules and hearing dates with 17 respect to defendant's anticipated motion for summary judgment and defendant's motion to 18 exclude testimony of plaintiff's damages expert offered to support class certification. The parties
19 subsequently stipulated to a schedule for briefing the motion to exclude. As to the summary
20 judgment motion, defendant offered to provide additional time, but strenuously opposes plaintiff's
21 attempt to have it postponed until after the class certification motion is heard.

22 The motions will not be heard on separate dates. Plaintiffs alternatively request that the 23 motions all be heard on August 25, 2022. While that may be later than defendant would prefer, all
24 the motions will be heard on that date. The parties remain free to negotiate any extended briefing
25 schedules for any matters not already fully briefed, as long as reply briefs are filed no less than 26 two weeks prior to the hearing. If the parties cannot reach agreement, the timing provisions of the 27 local rules and/or existing stipulated schedules will apply—no further requests for court
28 intervention in setting briefing schedules will be entertained.

1 IT IS SO ORDERED.
